Pastor's Message

"Let us follow after Christ and pray to the Father together with him. Let us not emulate Judas by departing from Christ, after partaking of his favors and dining excellently with him." (St. Thomas More)

"Our God is a God who is approaching us. A God who is close. A God who started walking with His people and then became one of them, in Jesus Christ, to become close. With that closeness that gave encouragement to those ten lepers to ask Him to clean them up... No one wanted to miss that closeness." (Francis)

"Every joy and suffering, every event and need can become the matter for thanksgiving which, sharing in that of Christ, should fill one's whole life: 'Give thanks in all circumstances' (1 Thess 5:18)." (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 2648)

Pastor's Message

"Sigamos nosotros a Cristo y supliquemos al Padre con Él. No imitemos la conducta de Judas, abandonando a Cristo después de haber participado de sus favores y haber cenado espléndidamente con Él." (Santo Tomás More)

"Nuestro Dios es un Dios que se hace cercano. Un Dios que empezó a caminar con su pueblo y luego se hizo uno de su pueblo, en Jesucristo. Con esa cercanía que dio ánimo a esos diez leprosos para pedirle que los limpiara... Nadie quería perder esa cercanía." (Francisco)

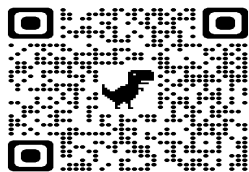

"Toda alegría y toda pena, todo acontecimiento y toda necesidad pueden ser materia de la acción de gracias que, participando en la de Cristo, debe llenar toda la vida: 'En todo den gracias' (1Tes 5,18)." (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, # 2648)

SYNOD CORNER

The Synod Corner: On Co-responsibility of the Laity
Reflection: "Sometimes people say, 'The Church is the priests' job.' However, the Synod pushes backhard.

We, the laity, are not spectators; we are full participants in the mission. Your gifts, your voice, your leadership—they matter. The Synod is calling us to step up, not just to fill a seat in the pews, but to co-carry the responsibility of being Church." The Final Document

Paragraph (67): "The Synod affirms the co-responsibility of all the baptized in the life and mission of the Church. Lay men and women, in particular, are not mere collaborators with the clergy but share fully in the responsibility to discern, decide, and act in communion."

El Rincón del Sínodo:

El Rincón del Sínodo: Sobre la corresponsabilidad de los laicos Reflexión: "A veces la gente dice: 'La Iglesia es el trabajo de los sacerdotes'. Sin embargo, el Sínodo retrocede con fuerza. Nosotros, los laicos, no somos espectadores; Somos participantes plenos en la misión.

Tus dones, tu voz, tu liderazgo— son importantes. El Sínodo nos llama a dar un paso adelante, no solo para ocupar un asiento en los bancos, sino para llevar la responsabilidad de ser Iglesia". El Documento Final Párrafo (67): "El Sínodo afirma la corresponsabilidad de todos los bautizados en la vida y misión de la Iglesia. Los laicos, hombres y mujeres, en particular, no son meros colaboradores del clero, sino que comparten plenamente la responsabilidad de discernir, decidir y actuar en comunión"
